FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 24.

Letter from Culpeper. [Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.] MITCHELL'S STATION, May 23.—The most insipid election ever held here is progressing to-day, and as all the old incumbents, excepting sheriff, are being voted for, and there being no opposition—means no money, no whiskey, hence quiet reigns in Warsaw. Sheriffalty is special to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Benjamin Pullam, and his son Alfred is the only candidate. We had a spanking wind and rain date. We had a spanking wind and rain storm yesterday afternoon lasting about thirty minutes, and fruit trees and weak fences went down in it and the air became cold enough to require fire to sit by; the Blue Ridge mountains showed a white face this morning, and the thermometer marked 48 degrees in the shade. Fruits of all kind, excepting apples, give promise of a most abundant yield—only frost is dreaded.

The mail and passenger accommodations for this point, under the new schedule, is perfectly abominable.

Weak-kneed and protection democrats, and repudiating Virginians generally, must be badly wounded when the old GAZETTE opens with her Long-Tom-as I hear con-siderable squealing very frequently here-

Our hearts are with you now and will be to morrow during the ceremonies attending the unveiling of the monument—it is full of significance—the time—the place—the sub-ject—everything is of interest connected with its being erected at Alexandria. THISTLE.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

Joshua F. Ross, who a few months ago shot his uncle, George Hughes, and on Mon-day last shot himself through the head, died at Gloucester last night.

In Princess Anne county, on Wednesday night the residence of the Rev. F.C. Clarke, a Baptist minister, was burned, and Mr. Clarke, his two daughters, and next oldest son, and Miss Pullen a niece visiting him, were consumed by the flames. His wife, with Miss Ella Bidgood, the governess, and two children escaped. The fire was acci-

JURISDICTION OVER ARLINGTON .-- The "Arlington Free State," as the United States ed, has, as heretofore mentioned, been under the jurisdiction of both the United States and of the State of Virginia, but, in fact, under the government of neither. It has two officials. United States Commissions. has two officials, United States Commissioner Wormly, who has a commission-er Wormly, who has a commission from Judge Hughes, of the United States Court of the Virginia District, and Constable Lo-max, who has a similar commission. The present code of the "Free State" is the law of necessity. Three cases of minor (a) of necessity. Three cases of minor felony brought before the Alexandria County Court by Commonwealth's Attorney Clements have been dismissed for want of jurisdiction, but now a crime of greater magnitude committed there will require attention. A few days ago a colored man named Charles M. Hill shot Mary Jane Massey, colored. The soldiers from Fort Myer brought Hill to the Alexandria jail, but he has been carried back to Arlington by Constable Lomax. On the death of the woman a serious questions of the woman as a serious questions.

tion of jurisdiction over the homicide case will arise. The United States Court's juris diction is not considered clear, and while the State officers for the present decline jurisdiction the code of Virginia declares, in relation to Virginia lands ceded to the Uni-ted States, that the State court magistrates or officers may take such cognizance, exe cute such process and discharge such other legal functions within the same as may not be incompatible with the true intent and meaning of the act of cession.
